As part of the production team, you will be involved in the development of features and components throughout a wide spectrum of applications in the Ubisoft Connect ecosystem. You will be using a variety of programming languages, including but not limited to C++, Python, JavaScript/TypeScript, and frameworks like Vue.js.

You will work closely with a multi-disciplinary team of programmers, designers and testers where everyone is willing to share their knowledge and are encouraged to evolve every day. The team spans across several countries and is characterized by passion, collaboration and the love for gaming. As a Senior Programmer, you will have the opportunity to contribute to a wide spectrum of technologies, ranging from frontend to backend applications and tools, component styling to data distribution, network architecture or deployment pipelines.

You will also have the option to visit and work from collaborating studios.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Be part of an agile team collaboratively working on technical designs, new features as well as steady improvements of existing code.
- Lead technology task forces and initiatives.
- Contribute to high-level software application and architecture design decisions.
- Write clear, modular and maintainable code.
- Debugging, profiling, maintaining and improving the existing code base.

You are seeking the opportunity to contribute with both your experience and passion to one of the biggest gaming platforms. You are eager to involve yourself in the development of new features, general improvements and the steady modernization of our applications and tools.

You have very strong communication skills and enjoy sharing knowledge and experience by mentoring and supporting less experienced colleagues.

Requirements:

- 5+ years professional programming experience

- Highly proficient in modern C++

Experience in any of the following is a plus:

- Web technologies
- Databases

Longing to be part of a fun, creative and passionate workplace? We can offer you this and more in an open and friendly environment where you will work with some of the best craftsmen in the industry. Are you up for it? Come aboard for the ride!
