- Design, implement, maintain and optimize game systems in Unity/C#
- Code review the work of your peers and provide valuable feedback
- Identify risks and opportunities presented during the development and provide solutions to resolve potentially complex problems
- Help the Lead Programmer in hiring and interview processes as needed
- Share your knowledge with others on the team regularly
- Keep your skills current and be continually learning

What you bring:

- 5-8 years of game dev experience and shipped completed games (AA/AAA preferred)
- Master, Bachelor or equivalent in computer science or engineering (Masters counts for 1-2 years experience)
- Solid programming skills in C#
- Solid experience with Unity
- Experience with Unity's Job and Burst packages from DOTS is preferred
- C++ programming skills are a big plus
- Experience in refactoring and optimizing existing systems
- Solid code reviewing skills
- Good debugging and problem solving skills
- Understanding of multi-threaded principles
- Ability to work efficiently with a large, existing code base

- Experience working in an Agile software development environment (e.g., Scrum)
- Knowledge of software development environments and associated tools. (i.e. Visual Studio, Perforce, JIRA...)
- Strong time management skills
- Good reporting and documentation skills
- Fluent in English, both verbally and written
- Great communication skills and a positive team-player attitude
